Name: Judy Groner

Mac or PC? PC

What was your major? Did you continue in that field? NEJS - yes

Career? Do tell!

I have worked in Jewish education since graduating; currently serving as Head of School of B'nai Shalom Day School (N-8) in Greensboro. I have been at the school for 16 years. Prior to moving to Greensboro, I lived in Israel and worked at Oranim Teachers' Seminary in Tivon.

Favorite memory from Brandeis days?

Shabbat afternoon softball games, egalitarian services in the chapel, biking to Walden Pond.

Favorite Brandeis professor? Nahum Sarna

What have you done since graduation that you are most proud of?

Making aliya and helping to establish Kibbutz Hanaton in the Galil – creating a community from a field of stones and bringing a liberal Jewish presence to an undeveloped part of the country.

Are you single or married? Tell us about your family:

Married to Ron Eisenberg, with seven children total. Mine include Daniel Havivi (Brandeis '07), Nadav Havivi, Tal Havivi, Noa Havivi

What goals have you set for yourself for the next ten years?

More time for exercise and less time for stress.
