Maiden name? Chartkoff

Mac or PC? PC

LP, CD, or IPOD? CD

What was your major? Did you continue in that field?

American Studies

Since American Studies is the most varied and interdisciplinary major in the school, you might say that I did, since I have had four very different careers: 6 years in advertising, 12 years in health care administration, 8 years as “soccer mom”, and now almost 4 years in kitchen sales and design.

Career? Do tell!

The above pretty much tells it all. I am currently working for Expo Design Center and taking classes to complete a degree in design.

Favorite memory from Brandeis days?

Many of my memories are not fit to print! However, one that stands out is the Blizzard of '78. We had a week with no classes, no responsibilities, and because it was the beginning of the semester, not a whole lot of school work. We had an idyllic week of sledding, snow ball fighting, walking through the deserted streets of Waltham, and hanging out in the mods having fun. We were with our friends in a frozen moment of time—a really unique experience.

Favorite Brandeis professor?

Stephen Whitfield—warm, witty, engaging. Also loved Michael Gilmore who was a brilliant lecturer.

What have you done since graduation that you are most proud of?

My husband and I have raised two wonderful boys.

Are you single or married? Tell us about your family:

I am married for 20 years to husband, Tom, and we have two boys, Elliot, almost 18, and Jacob, 11.

What goals have you set for yourself for the next ten years?

I would like to finish my design degree & work in the design field, probably designing kitchens and baths. I would like to travel more, exercise more, and continue building strong relationships with my family and friends.

What items are on your bucket list?

Similar to my goals, but I would love to travel to exotic locations, learn to scuba dive, work on reading the never ending pile of books by my bed!

Please provide a joke, a current photo, and a photo from your time at Brandeis.
I'm already late with this yearbook form and I'd better get it in! Looking forward to seeing you all at reunion!
